Parent Insights from All Applicants

As a parent, you have a unique and invaluable perspective to share with us. You have witnessed your child’s accomplishments and frustrations, and you have watched as (s)he has questioned and explored the world. In response to the following questions, we appreciate your candor and value your honest observations and reflections. We hope that you will enjoy reflecting on your child’s growth.

1. How does your child spend most of his or her time each day? What activities are most engaging? How would you describe the way your child plays both socially and individually?

2. What are your child’s main interests and strengths right now?

3. Please describe any fears or anxieties your child has or has had in the past? How is this fear expressed?

4. What can you tell us about your child’s developmental milestones, success stories and/or challenges, to help us understand his or her growth?

5. Are you aware of any learning or behavioral conditions which may exist and might require further support?
