Pathway Activities

The ‘Eagle Pathway’ is a mean of prioritizing participation in SAS activities and athletics. The Interscholastic Association of Southeast Asian Schools (IASAS) activities and athletics currently offered in high school guide the SAS Eagle Pathway activities or sports through the school divisions starting in elementary school.

There is a considered effort to provide students enriching opportunities in Eagle Pathway Activities. We endeavor to offer a variety of these activities for all grade levels throughout the school year, but course availability is subject to change based on the ability to staff them and the age appropriateness of certain activities.

All activities will be offered by either SAS faculty or external vendors. This accounts for the difference in price of various activities.

Pathway Athletics

All Elementary students have access to selected Eagle Pathway Athletics throughout the year. The focus of these is on ‘fun fundamental’ skill development and play in a positive sporting atmosphere to get more children involved in attempting and enjoying sports. As suggested by the ‘pathway’ term, the focus on skill development is age appropriate for each grade level.

The Eagle Athlete Development Model is the basis for the development of all SAS student athletes in Eagle Pathway sports. This model identifies age-appropriate expectations for children for their participation in athletics. In the EAA program, this means:

- Kindergarten to fifth-grade pathway programs will focus on structured skill development specific to each sport they participate in.
- There will be no cuts and no ability-based sorting in fifth grade or below for pathway sports, which means that all students who come out to play a pathway sport will be able to participate (depending on space availability).
- Emphasis on the benefits of sports seasons and the encouragement of students to participate in multiple activities throughout the year.
- The intention of the pathway opportunities is for as many children as possible to try either one or both sports offered for their grade level each season. As such, we encourage families to register for only one day of a sport per week. However, families can choose to register for the same sport twice a week.

Laughter Yoga/ Meditation - 1st/2nd grade

When children learn techniques for self-health, mindfulness, and inner fulfillment, they can navigate life's challenges with a little more ease. Research shows that mindful meditation techniques improve student's cognitive functioning. Yoga at an early age encourages self-esteem and body awareness with a physical activity that's noncompetitive. Children derive enormous benefits from yoga. Physically, it enhances their flexibility, strength, coordination, and body awareness. In addition, their concentration and sense of calmness and relaxation improves. Doing yoga, children exercise, play, connect more deeply with the inner self, and develop an intimate relationship with the natural world that surrounds them.

This class will offer students a combination of laughter yoga, breathing, yoga postures and mindful meditation exercises. Fostering cooperation and compassion instead of opposition—is a great gift to give our children.

(Please note that students need to bring their own yoga mat on the first day which we will store and return at the end of the EAA term)
